Class History

In the fall of 1941, thirty-one Freshmen entered the halls of N.B.H.S. It was quite a job finding our way around but after a few days we managed. We elected the following officers: President, Dorothy Elmer; Vice-President, Paul Harris; Treasurer, Tom Kent; and Secretary, Peggy Butler. Remember the Freshman reception? Those dresses were fun to wear. Just ask the boys if you don't believe us.

Miss North was the director of our inter-class play "The Phantom Gentleman". It proved that we had some good actors and actresses in our class.

Tom Ripley, Ken Lenihan, Ed Barber, Nina Harrington, and Albert Robinson did not return for their Sophomore year, so that left only twenty-six of us. Our class officers for this year were: President, Paul Becker; Vice-President, Madeline Marsh; Treasurer, Peggy Butler; Secretary, Paul Harris.

This year it was our turn to initiate the Freshmen. Madeline Harris had a little trouble with her grain bag that evening.

Our inter-class play, directed by Mr. Withers, "It Happened to Sweeney", was a highlight of our Sophomore year.

In December we all received our class rings. Now we really felt as though we belonged here.

This year our intermural contest play

"All American Boy" had a decidedly patriotic theme.

In the spring we were all aglow with plans for our Junior Prom. For the first time in many years the decorations at this event were original, artistic, and highly decorative. The familiar old gym became a tropical jungle overnight. Miss Kettle, our advisor, was chiefly responsible for the success of this dance. Peggy Butler was chosen as Prom queen. Her escort was Paul Becker.

A group of nineteen Seniors returned in the fall of 1944 and were greatly helped from that time on by Miss Tynan, our advisor. For such a busy year the following officers were elected: President, Charles Porter; Vice-President, Beatrice Herrick; Secretary, Edwin Colvin; Treasurer, Ann Morrison. This year we all worked very hard to make the "Commentator" the best number in years.

The Senior play was "The Actors Have Come" and it proved to be one of the greatest plays ever performed by a North Bennington Senior class.

This year seemed to go faster than any other year. Perhaps it was because it was our last. As all of us looked back on our past four years a tear or two was dropped. No one knows where our paths will lead us but we will always remember the many hours we spent together.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1945 of North Bennington High School, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred forty-five in these United States of America, State of Vermont, County of Bennington and being sound of mind and body, having no further use of our intelligence here in NBHS do hereby generously devise and bequeath to the undergraduates of this school our abilities and skills in which we have excelled in the past four years in all fields.

Ethel Burgess wills her voice to Marjorie Harris and hopes that "Marj" will carry on where Ethel left off.

Madeline Marsh wills her unlimited knowledge to Beulah Foster.

Pauline Harrington wills her ability to keep a constant flow of chatter going to Alice Sweet and hopes that Alice can make use of it.

Betty Gordon wills her ability to manage hot lunches and basketball to Hazel Thurber and Jeanne Harrington.

Jane Bagley wills to all the girls at NBHS her ability to dress well.

Mary Vail wills her thoughtfulness to Lorraine Gates.

Paul Becker wills his attraction for the fairer sex to John Millington.

George Bushee wills his ability to type to John Blundon and amnesia where attending school is concerned to Richard Mattison.

Olive Percey wills her Taxi Service for all of NBHS, including the faculty, to John Millington, Howard Browe and "Jake" Hedding.

Paul Harris wills his ability to "Get his women" to "Jackie" Cross.

"Bud" Porter wills his right to claim himself the tallest boy in NBHS to Henry Green. Use this gift carefully, Henry and only when needed.

Beatrice Herrick wills her quiet manner to Mary Harris. Shaftsbury girls are noted for being seen but not heard.

Marie Powers and Dorothy Elmer turn over their headache, "The Spectator" to Madeline Harris and Jeanne Robinson. They hope that the girls have a supply of aspirin on hand, because they will certainly need them.

"Tom" Kent wills his powers of organizing and his versatility along with his tendency to keep up his side of an argument to Bill Nolan. And to Ed Keough he leaves his position in both Band and Swing Orchestra.

Ann Morrison wills her ability to "tripple" up and down the keys to "Dolly" Norton. We hope that this means more than accompanying the A Capella Choir.

Edwin Colvin wills his ability as a machinist to Norman Clark with the hope that he finds it as useful as he does.

Peggy Butler wills her dancing ability and good nature to Marie Maxon.

Irma Veihelmann wills her interest in the Signal Corps and her ability to make herself heard about school to Marjorie LaClair.

If anyone wishes to contest the items of this will, let him take immediate legal action to do so. Otherwise the Senior Class of North Bennington High School upon this date, June 4, 1945 does lawfully declare this will ready to use. Starting tonight we, the Senior Class, expect you, the underclassmen, to uphold the traditions that have been handed down to you in this will.

CLASS POEM

Ann Morrison and Pauline Harrington

So many times fate takes its toll
On every girl and boy.
This time it leads us to our goal,
Toward which we climb with joy.

Enshrined in each and every heart
You'll find there's sure to be
Faith and courage from the start
To bring us victory.

No wall for us too high has been,
For once our aims are set,
We keep on working for the end,
No task too hard, as yet.

Intent on future plans are we,
For it is most important;
Some soon will be beyond the sea
Where life is not enjoyment.

O'er us so fast the time has flown
That it is most surprising
To see how much we all have grown
From all the good advising.

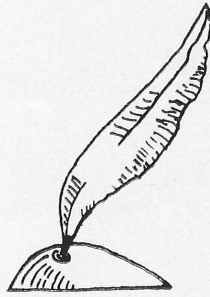

Remember us as we move out
Into a world of turmoil;
There'll never be the slightest doubt
That to N.B. we're loyal.

This year the sports program created great interest at NBHS with the starting of fall baseball practice. Under the watchful eye of Coach Dobrusin, the team picked up a lot of experience to help them out this spring.

Basketball practice started the first of November with about fifteen men reporting to Coach Dobrusin. A schedule of twenty games was drawn up, of which we won ten. After losing the first two games the Varsity came back to win five in a row.

The biggest thrill of the year came when the Headmasters' Club ordered us to have a playoff with Arlington. The winners to go to the State Basketball Tournament in Rutland. The final score of this game was 26-24 with Arlington winning. However, the boys had a good team and much credit must be given to Coach Dobrusin for his splendid coaching.

BOYS' SPORTS

GIRLS' SPORTS

Sports were again this year the most popular outside activity. The enthusiasm and cooperation shown by the students made it possible to resume the playing of hockey and continue the playing of basketball.

Approximately twenty girls went out for hockey under the able coaching of Miss Corcoran. Although they were victorious in only one of the four games they played, the girls showed excellent teamwork. Their prospects for next year are better.

Basketball again took the spotlight as being the favorite sport. Thirty girls practiced three nights a week to develop an efficient, co-operative, and dependable team. They played eight inter-scholastic games, winning six and tying one. They were rewarded by receiving the Taconic League Championship. Their success is not only due to their ability to play but also to the untiring coaching of Miss Corcoran.

Making Good Money ... and Headed for TROUBLE

You know her. You see her every day. She is smart enough to make good money ... foolish enough to spend it all. And she is headed for trouble.

"I can't save now," she says. "There are too many things I want. I'll start later on ... not now."

Other folks, in other times, have talked that way. Lots of them came to grief. For industry can slacken ... jobs can dwindle ... payrolls can fall. Then comes the pinch! And the pinch is felt by persons who had intended to save "later on."

For your family's sake, as well as for your Country's sake, save now. Plan your saving. Plan your spending. Be realistic. Work out your plan in black and white. Buy only what you need. Invest in plenty of War Bonds. Bank part of your money in an emergency account. Then, in the future, you will have something to show for the dollars you now are earning and will help to maintain their purchasing power.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs
DOWN, the buying power of your dollar UP.
